Know before you go Vietnam tips

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Visa-free up to 21 days

Philippine passport holders enter Vietnam visa-free for stays up to 21 days. Your passport must be valid at least 6 months beyond your return date and have blank pages. No vaccinations are required; just keep routine shots up to date.

MONEY

Vietnamese dong (₫)

Cash rules for markets, taxis and street food; cards work in hotels, malls and larger restaurants. Tipping is not expected, but rounding up or ₫20–50k for guides and drivers is appreciated. Budget roughly ₱1,500–2,500 a day beyond your package for meals and extras.

WEATHER & WHAT TO PACK

Warm and humid

Central Vietnam (Da Nang, Hoi An) is hot most of the year; the north (Hanoi, Sapa) is cooler and can be chilly from December to February. Pack light breathable clothes, a light jacket for the north, a rain layer, sunblock and comfy walking shoes.

GETTING AROUND

Grab is your friend

Use the Grab app for cars and motorbike taxis at fair, up-front prices. Cities are walkable, and your package includes airport transfers and a private coach on tour days. Avoid unmetered street taxis.

LANGUAGE

Vietnamese; some English

English is understood in hotels and tourist spots but limited elsewhere. A few words go far: Xin chào (hello), Cảm ơn (thank you), Bao nhiêu? (how much?). Your English-speaking guide handles the rest.

CULTURE & ETIQUETTE

Dress modestly at temples

Cover shoulders and knees at pagodas and remove your shoes when asked. Ask before photographing people, keep your voice down inside temples, and use both hands when giving or receiving. Friendly bargaining at markets is normal.
