Important notice please read

1. Due to weather, traffic or other unforeseen circumstances, the order of some attractions may be adjusted according to visitor volume or road conditions, without reducing the number of attractions or shortening sightseeing time.
2. Any extra costs caused by force majeure, including natural disasters, that prevent a visit are borne by the guest, and fees already incurred are not refunded.
3. If the hotels above are not available at your requested time, they will be replaced by similar ones.
4. Guests should plan their free time sensibly to avoid delays. Before choosing any entertainment or extra activities at scenic spots, understand the details and precautions, choose according to your physical condition and follow the safety instructions.
5. Xinjiang runs on a different daily rhythm from other cities in China; for example lunch is usually around 2:00 PM and activities are scheduled between about 9:00 AM and 8:00 PM.
6. Xinjiang food is mainly spicy and flavourful, with beef and mutton, and may not suit every taste; avoid eating it together with raw or cold foods, and avoid eating fruit with hot tea. Day and night temperatures differ greatly.
7. Please do not walk barefoot in the bathroom or shower; use non-slip mats and non-slip, waterproof slippers, and place the shower curtain inside the bathtub. After checking in, check the room facilities, hot and cold water and drainage, and tell the guide or driver at once if anything is wrong.
8. Xinjiang has beautiful scenery, but local hotels and services are limited, so please do not expect too much; getting a good night's sleep is the most important.
9. The itinerary, flight times and hotels are subject to final confirmation. No refund is given if guests cancel itinerary or accommodation arrangements during the trip, and tips must be paid in full for the number of days of the trip.
10. The guide may sell souvenirs on the bus, such as Xinjiang dried fruits, dairy products and essential oils.
11. Kanas Day 4: from November to December, the Colorful Beach is replaced by the Baihaba Scenic Area (Big Stone Viewing Platform, Lonely Tree, Old Village, China-Kazakhstan Grand Canyon).
12. Meals: breakfast plus 16 meals, with one special upgrade to whole roasted lamb in Xinjiang. Two complimentary bottles of water per person per day.
13. Collected with the tour fee: China group visa USD 40, Philippine travel tax USD 30, and tips for driver and guide USD 8 per day x 9 days = USD 72, all per person.

Know before you go China tips

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Tourist visa required

Philippine passport holders need a Chinese tourist (L) visa arranged before travel — our ticketing desk can walk you through the requirements. Passport valid 6+ months with blank pages. No vaccinations are required.

MONEY

Renminbi (¥); go cashless

China runs on mobile pay — set up Alipay or WeChat Pay and link a Visa/Mastercard before you fly; they now work for tourists almost everywhere. Carry some cash as backup. Tipping is not customary. Budget roughly ₱2,000–3,500 a day for meals and extras.

WEATHER & WHAT TO PACK

Four seasons; check your month

Shanghai has hot, humid summers and cold winters; Yunnan (Kunming, Lijiang) is mild by day but cool at night and sits at altitude. Layers, a warm jacket, comfortable shoes, sunblock and a rain layer cover most dates.

GETTING AROUND

Metro plus Didi

City metros are fast, cheap and signed in English; use the Didi app (with in-app English) for taxis. Your package covers airport transfers and a private coach on tour days, and high-speed trains link the cities.

LANGUAGE

Mandarin; little English

English is limited outside hotels, so keep translations handy. Useful words: Nǐ hǎo (hello), Xièxie (thank you), Duōshǎo qián? (how much?). Your guide translates throughout the tour.

CULTURE & ETIQUETTE

Mind the customs

Give and receive items with both hands, never stand chopsticks upright in rice, and queue patiently. Photography can be restricted at temples and official sites — follow the signs and your guide.
